Mapping the Past, Navigating Your Family History with Maps

Daniel Hubbard

Dan has a Ph.D. in high energy physics from the University of Michigan. He worked for many years in Switzerland and Sweden, but now he lives in Libertyville in the house where he grew up. He has been interested in family history since he was eleven. He is a member of the Association of Professional Genealogists.

Check out his interesting website and blog:

Join us for a discussion of:

- how to look at different types of maps
- how to use them to understand your ancestors' towns and migrations
- changing borders
- extracting data and even names from maps

Meeting is at the Northbrook Historical Society
1776 Walters Avenue
Northbrook, Illinois 60062
